Dear Harold,

Here are the two articles I mentioned. Both are interesting for different reasons. In the Rachel Oswald story there is discussion of how Lifton "abused" their friendship. It's on page eight column two.

The Parkland Hospital piece is engrossing for at least two reasons. The detailed discussion of Kennedy's wounds only two months after the "attempted" treatment. The lack of information about Crenshaw. Crenshaw isn't mentioned until the discussion of Oswald and then only briefly.

Hope you enjoy them both.

Best wishes,

Dave
